

---

---

The following statements are intended to describe the general nature and level of work to be performed. They are not intended to be construed as an exhaustive list of all responsibilities, duties and skills required of personnel so classified.

---

This is a part-time (20 hours or less) student position. The cage wash technician prepares caging to be used for housing research animals, which includes scraping, soaking, washing dirty equipment, stocking /storing and prepping clean equipment for the facility's daily needs. Will perform start up and shut down procedures of cage washing /sterilization equipment. Will monitor cage wash machines for malfunctions and report any problems to the supervisor. Also perform regular schedule preventative maintenance on cage washing machines. The cage wash technician may also provide some general custodial care for various areas of the animal facility including but not limited to cleaning and sanitizing animal, procedure, surgery, necropsy and storage rooms and daily trash removal. Will also assist animal care staff and perform other related duties as assigned.

	n/a